On the first day of the week, just as the sun was rising, something miraculous happened that would change the world forever. This day, known as Easter Sunday, marked the moment when Jesus fulfilled His promise and rose from the dead, proving His power over death.

Early that morning, Mary Magdalene went to visit Jesus's tomb, but she found something unexpected—the stone that covered the entrance had been rolled away, and the tomb was empty! Confused and weeping, she saw someone she thought was the gardener. But when He called her by name, "Mary," she realized it was Jesus, alive! Filled with joy, she ran to tell the disciples that she had seen the Lord.

The disciples were hiding, afraid and unsure of what was next. But when Mary shared her encounter, hope began to rise. Later, Jesus Himself appeared to them, showing His hands and feet, and saying, "Peace be with you." In that moment, they understood the true meaning of His words and the reality of His resurrection.

Jesus's victory over death brought joy and hope, not just to His followers back then, but to all of us today. It's a reminder that love is stronger than death, and that with faith, we too can overcome our fears and doubts.
